

Visualizing & Creating Mental Images

1. Good readers create mental images during and after reading.
2. Good readers understand that creating images helps in understanding and comprehending text.
3. Good readers use images to draw conclusions.
4. Good readers use images to recall details.
5. Good readers use images to recall text after it has been read.
6. Good readers revise their images to add new information.

